This study presents the design and fabrication of a strain sensor that uses single-walled carbon nanonets for strain sensing. The sensor was encapsulated between two layers of Parylene-C. These flexible strain sensors exhibited excellent strain sensitivities, and can be used to measure bone surface strain.

To demonstrate the practicality of the optimal design criteria shown in Fig. 4, structures with three different waveguides widths ( $W=470, 390,$  and  $340$  nm) were fabricated in both single waveguide and add-drop configurations. The waveguides are all single mode for the desired range of wavelengths (652-660 nm).
